Governor's Emergency Education Relief (GEER) Fund (Updated 1/21/21)

Eligibility: The CRRSAA (December Stimulus) divides a new round of funding to GEER between the governors' education prerogatives (referred to as GEER II) and Emergency Assistance to Non-Public Schools (EANS). The governor determines how to distribute EANS funding, for which nonpublic schools may apply to the state education agency. The distribution methods must consider each school's poverty level, impact from the coronavirus, and the emergency services or assistance for which the school is requesting assistance. EANS funds may be used for supplies, training, and ventilation improvements, among other items, related to the coronavirus or remote instruction. For funding provided under the CARES Act, the Governor of each state determined how to use all GEER funds.

Distribution Date: GEER II funds are automatically provided to states while states may apply now for EANS funds. Each state is to make an EANS application for nonpublic schools available within 30 days of receiving the EANS funds from the federal government. Connecticut received its CARES Act funding.

Amount: The Connecticut CRRSAA allocations are $12.4 million for GEER II and $15.8 million for nonpublic schools. The governor has not yet announced an allocation plan for GEER II.

GEER funding under the CARES Act totaled $27.9 million, and was used for: devices and connectivity ($15 million), higher education scholarships ($6.9 million), remote early childhood learning ($4 million), and assistance to the constituent units ($1 million each to UConn and the Connecticut State Colleges and Universities system).

Eligibility: State is to allocate at least 90% of funding to local education agencies (LEAs), including charter schools, in proportion to the amount of funds that the LEAs and charters received under part A of Title I in the most recent FFY (i.e., funds are targeted to higher-poverty schools and charters). Recipients may use funds for a wide range of activities and purposes. The state may reserve up to 0.5% of the total funds for administrative costs, and the remaining funds are for grants/contracts by the state education agency to meet emergency needs as it determines, to address issues responding to the coronavirus.

Distribution Date and Application Process: The Connecticut State Department of Education is preparing a revised application, which will include (1) a needs assessment of how the LEA has identified educational gaps caused by the pandemic, (2) an articulation of the steps that will be taken to mitigate the gap, and (3) a description of the intended alignment of resources available under ESSER I and II to implement the plan. It is anticipated that the application will be open to LEAs beginning the week of February 22, 2021.

Amount: The total Connecticut allocation is $492.4 million; the state level reserve is $49.2 million with $443.2 million available for district level allocation. Districts are able to apply for funds through SDE.

Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF) (Updated 1/14/21)

Agency: Constituent units (UConn, CSCU institutions)

Intended Population: Institutions of higher education and their students Eligibility: The CRRSAA (December Stimulus) distributes $20.2 billion (89% of the fund's appropriation) as general funding to public and private nonprofit institutions. Of these funds, each institution must spend the same amount on student grants as was required to be spent under the CARES Act ($6.25 billion). The institutional share of the funds (approximately $14 billion) may be used for a broad range of activities, including to replace lost revenue. The distribution formula differs from the CARES Act formula, with CRRSAA providing a larger share of the available funds to institutions that have sizeable populations of part-time students. Under CRRSAA, a small portion of these funds will be allocated to institutions that provided only distance learning pre-coronavirus (based on the number of Pell grant recipients), and for these institutions, the funds must be entirely distributed as student grants.

Other CRRSAA distributions through this fund are programmatic ($1.7 billion, 7.5%), funds to private for-profit institutions which may use the allocation only on student grants ($680.9 million, 3%), and funds for institutions with the greatest coronavirus need ($113.5 million, 0.5%).

Office of Fiscal Analysis

Updated

The CARES Act previously distributed approximately $12.6 billion (90% of the fund's original appropriation) as general funding to institutions, with half of these funds designated for student grants. Other fund distributions totaling $1.4 billion were programmatic (e.g., HBCUs), funds to bring institutions to a $500,000 minimum fund grant, and a competitive grant program.

Distribution Date: The U.S. Department of Education is automatically distributing the CRRSAA general funding to institutions that received CARES Act funds; other institutions may apply now. CARES Act funds have been distributed, except for the competitive grant program. Amount: CRRSAA general funding to Connecticut public and private institutions totals $205 million, including student grant funds. Of this amount, $140.6 million is for the constituent units: $65.6 million to the community colleges, $42.7 million to the Connecticut State Universities, $32.1 million to UConn, and $285,000 to Charter Oak State College. Allocations for the other portions of CRRSAA funding have not been allocated.

The CARES Act distributed $146.1 million in total HEERF funds to Connecticut public and private institutions, including funds designated for student grants. Of this amount, $78.2 million was received by the constituent units: $29.6 million by the community colleges, $27 million by the Connecticut State Universities, and $21.7 million by UConn. Student grants at the constituent units ranged from $350 to $1,000.

National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) Cares Act Grant (Updated 5/18/20)

Total grants in the amount of $300 million in fisheries assistance funding provided by Sec. 12005 of CARES Act, will be allocated to states, Tribes, and territories with coastal and marine fishery participants who have been negatively affected by COVID-19. These funds will be used to address direct and indirect industry fishery-related losses related to COVID-19.

Eligibility: Interstate marine fisheries commissions, Puerto Rico, and U.S. Virgin Islands. NOAA Fisheries will use the allocations to make awards to NOAA partners: the Atlantic States Marine Fisheries Commission, the Pacific States Marine Fisheries Commission, the Gulf States Marine Fisheries Commission, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands. The commissions will work with each state to develop spending plans consistent with the CARES Act and NOAA's guidance. All spend plans must describe the main categories for funding, including direct payments, fishery-related infrastructure, and fishery-related education that address direct and indirect COVID-19 impacts to commercial fishermen, charter businesses, qualified aquaculture operations, subsistence/cultural/ceremonial users, processors, and other fishery-related businesses. Once a spend plan has been approved by NOAA, the agency anticipates that the three Commissions will review applications and process payments to eligible fishery participants on behalf of the states and territories. The states will have the option to process payments themselves.

Fishery participants eligible for funding include Tribes, commercial fishing businesses, charter/for-hire fishing businesses, qualified aquaculture operations, processors, and other fishery-related businesses. They should work with their state marine fisheries management agencies, territories, or Tribe to understand the process for applying for these funds. Also of note, for the purposes of Sec. 12005 funding, businesses farther down the supply chain – including vessel repair businesses, restaurants, or seafood retailers – are not considered “fishery-related businesses.”

Distribution Date: distribution of funds will vary, however it is anticipated that these funds will be disbursed more quickly than fishery disaster assistance funds because the CARES Act language does not require the Secretary of Commerce to declare a fishery disaster. The CARES Act also allows the funds to be awarded on a “rolling basis,” which will enable NOAA Fisheries to execute the funds more nimbly in partnership with the states, Tribes, and territories.

Estimated Amount for Connecticut: $1,835,424

OTHER PROVISIONS

The federal response to COVID-19 and related bills include provisions for increased funding in addition to the grants identified above. While the state specific allocation of this funding is not detailed, it is relevant to states as administrators of federal programs and applicants for competitive grants.

Renewal of Section 8 Project-based Rental Assistance (Updated 5/4/20)

Approximately $1 billion in new funding will be made available through the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to allow the continuation of housing assistance contracts with private landlords for over 1.2 million Project-Based Section 8 households across the United States. HUD funds the renewal of certain existing Section 8 project-based housing assistance payments contracts with owners of multifamily rental housing. This program assists low-income households in obtaining decent, safe, and sanitary housing in these assisted units.

Eligible tenants pay a share of their income and the rental assistance pays the rest, up to the approved rent. This funding will go to owners or sponsors of properties receiving project based assistance under this program for maintaining normal operations and taking other necessary actions due to COVID-19.

Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) (Updated 5/05/20)

In addition to the three SAMHSA grants described above, at least $50 million will also be made available for Suicide Prevention Programs. The CARES Act does not specify which grants will receive funding. As noted by FFIS, the Youth Suicide Prevention State Grants comprise a large share of funding for suicide prevention programs.

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)

Federal SNAP contingency reserve funding of $15.5 billion will be allocated as necessary to support additional participants due to COVID-19. Funding will be distributed by the secretary of the Department of Agriculture (USDA). Connecticut has waived the face-to-face requirement for SNAP interviews and is waiting on federal approval for additional program modifications to assist participants during the pandemic.

Temporary Unemployment Insurance Expansion

Apart from grants to states and other sub-national governments, the federal government's response to the COVID-19 crisis includes an approximate $260 billion nationwide temporary expansion of unemployment insurance benefits via three new programs: (1) Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (adds unemployment compensation of $600 per week of compensation); (2) Pandemic Emergency Unemployment Compensation (extends unemployment compensation by 13 weeks); and (3) Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (covers workers such as independent contractors and freelancers who don't otherwise qualify for unemployment compensation).

Temporary 6.2% Increase in Medicaid FMAP (Federal Medical Assistance Percentage) (Updated 5/04/20)

States will receive an increased FMAP for certain Medicaid expenditures that rely on the regular FMAP rate (in addition to Medicaid, additional federal guidance is forthcoming on programs which utilize the regular FMAP and therefore may be eligible for the temporary increase.) This increase is effective January 1, 2020, through the last day of the calendar quarter in which the public health emergency declared by the secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) terminates. While the impact to Connecticut is not fully known, the below summarizes current estimates as reported in OFA's April Monthly Statement:

The Families First Coronavirus Response Act (PL 116-127) provided states with a 6.2% increase in the Medicaid federal medical assistance percentage (FMAP). While this enhanced FMAP applies to most expenditures, it does not apply to expenditures for certain populations already receiving enhanced match (e.g., the expansion population). To date, Connecticut has received two awards for the enhanced FMAP for the calendar quarters ending 3/31/20 and 6/30/20, totaling $233.7 million. This increased revenue is reflected in changes to both General Fund expenditures and Federal Grants revenue. On the expenditure side, the state share of Medicaid is reduced by approximately $186.9 million due to the increase in federal reimbursement on Medicaid account expenditures within DSS. Federal Grants revenue projections have also been adjusted to reflect approximately $46.8 million in enhanced FMAP primarily for Medicaid-related expenditures that are budgeted in other agencies.
