This regulation adds eight more medical conditions to the list of conditions that qualify for medicinal marijuana resulting in a revenue gain to the state depending on the number of people who qualify and apply for the program. As of July 1, 2018, there are 26,673 people that qualify for the program and pay the $100 annual fee. In FY 17, the fee generated $2.1 million in revenue for the state.

¹ CGS Section 2-71c(c)(7) requires OFA to prepare “short analyses of the costs and long range projections of ... proposed agency regulations.”

² CGS Section 4-168a requires agencies to prepare a small business impact statement on all regulation submittals and prepare a regulatory flexibility analysis statement when there is an impact on small businesses.

The regulation increases various fees associated with medical marijuana and institutes various new fees resulting in a potential revenue gain to the state.
