Summary and Next Steps

• Many indicators are approaching or have exceeded the goals set in June 2015
• Further analysis is needed on recidivism rates to inform workgroup recommendations
• New strategic planning process should focus on continuum needed for youth in the deepest end of the system
• Strategic goal supplemental data, including disaggregation by race/ethnicity and gender, will be distributed to workgroups
• The final report on the 3 year goals will be in October 2018
• Efforts are underway to include program-level outcomes as part of the 2018 report
Judicial Branch

Program Data Collection

Examples of data collected on primary program models:

• Referral trends and capacity utilization
• Fidelity of service delivery
• Completion of services
• Re-arrest rates
• Data collected primarily through electronic databases
Department of Children and Families Program Data Collection

Data collected on programs serving justice system involved youth include:

• Services utilization and completion
• Client outcomes and program metrics
• Recidivism while in program
• Data collected in electronic database and in excel form
• Quality assurance monitoring contracts for Evidence Based Practices
