

Dear Sirs:

I oppose any measure that would bring anyone with guns (teachers, security personnel, etc.) to be in the schools when they are in session with students present.

As a former teacher, I feel that the whole tenor and climate of the school would be changed, not for the better. Students and teachers generally speaking should go about their business without having to be conscious of people with guns no matter their good intentions,

Arline Lomazzo
alomazzo@aol.com