

This idea may be expensive up front at a 1 time cost but will be well worth it in the future!

All classroom doors should be locked from the inside with a bullet proof glass viewing area on the door. Anyone entering a classroom should have to be let in other than when active class changes are taking place.

It should help prevent outside interferences.

David Loyd