

Sirs and Madams,

There may be pressure to do something and do it rapidly rather than take the time that any endeavor of real consequence requires.

My hope is that all committees will provide equal opportunities for all and particularly seek out expert information from all sides in formulating any new laws.

thank you

h quarti