

I am not 100% sure what needs to take place as I recognize that CT has some of the strongest gun laws in the US. However, Newtown's tragedy proves that they are not working! I am also 100% confident that mental health issues play a direct role in all of this!

Please do something to make us safer.