

To whom it may concern,

I am writing to you as a citizen of the State of Connecticut and the Town of Wilton to voice my objection to the legislation being proposed by Connecticut Against Gun Violence (CAGV) to ban all magazine rounds with a capacity of 7 or more along with "assault weapons". I believe this response by the CAGV is a misguided attempt to resolve the evil deed which occurred in Newton, CT on December 14, 2012. As a parent of two children myself, I feel for and mourn the loss experienced by the parents and families of Newtown. I am also a responsible and licensed firearm owner and treasure the rights and freedoms accorded to us in both our Federal and State Constitutions. As a result, I believe a thoughtful discussion regarding the root causes of such behavior should be the basis for a solution, rather than hastily trampling the rights of law-abiding citizens.

Thank you for your consideration,

Andrew Kandiew
