

im an avid hunter and waterfowler..never been arrested and always carried respectfully of others...what would happen if i only had a single shot at a duck flying by at 40+mph..mine as well throw my shotgun in the water....how can people try to ruin such a beautiful sport...nice and quiet in the woods or on the water...being in the woods is like therapy from from everything goin on in the world..STRESS FREE..why should law abidding citizens pay for the acts of certain individuals..