

To whom it may concern,

While I do appreciate the right to bare arms I do not support a person or persons right to own an arsenal of high capacity weapons. Nor do I believe that the answer to protecting our children is for teachers to strap on a gun everyday. I fully support a ban on owning and future sales of high capacity magazines and assault style weapons in Connecticut and nationwide.

Sincerely,

Antonia Cestari

Naugatuck, CT