

As a mother and grandmother I am in favor of gun laws that prevent the ownership of guns, especially multiple action guns that will kill and or maim children and/or adults I would also stipulate that just making laws without establishing strong follow up, on a continual basis is a waste of time. The people who own these guns have been getting around our laws forever.
I wish you all good luck.

Mrs. Barbara Licker –LWV
Westport, CT