

I do not support the proposed gun control bills being discussed. Preventing law abiding citizens from their second amendment right will never prevent another tragedy like the past in Newtown we must look at reducing illegal weapons on the street and the mental health industry.

Sent from my iPhone