

Please let us bring some sanity to this issue. Just because the gun rights groups are very vocal does not mean that they are right or that they represent the opinions of the majority. We must outlaw assault rifles and the ammunition clips that would enable an attacker to kill many people before an armed guard could even get his gun out of its holster.

Deborah Weinstein

Sent from my iPad