

Committee on Gun Violence - please ban assault type weapons and magazines holding several rounds of ammunition from being sold, without extensive background checks and records kept, to citizens (exception for police and security people who might need them.)