

Here in Essex Connecticut we feel strongly that the congress must make certain that assault weapons are banned, that there are strong laws on gun registration and that mental health issues need to be addressed. Our country is in the dark ages on the subject of gun control. Guns kill people!