

My thoughts are this, it should be mandatory to own a gun in Ct., very much like the Country of Switzerland which mandates gun training and ownership unless you opt out for religious or other political reasons.

There are approximately 3 million people in Ct, this would be very feasible as the population of Switzerland is more than twice the size of Ct.

Switzerland boast one of the lowest crime rates in the world. Enough said.