

As a parent, teacher and Connecticut resident, I implore you to pass stricter gun control laws. Our founding fathers never meant for our citizens to arm themselves as some do. Our children and families should not be in danger to protect the "rights " of a few vocal hobbyists. Our nation needs to get its priorities straight. Do not let the children and teachers of Newtown die in vain.

Jamie Toohill

Wilton, CT