

To Whom it May Concern,

Please note my strong approval of stricter gun control laws in this State of Connecticut and the entire country. While I strongly support a persons right to bear arms, I just as strongly support the fact that they should pass a background check first. And no one - other than the military - should have the right to bear automatic weapons!

Kindly,
Janell Federico
on behalf of myself and Len Federico