

To the Committee on Gun Violence –

Please ban assault-type weapons and automatic weapons with multiple rounds of ammunition in their magazines. There needs to be an extensive background check for gun purchases and a record of their purchase, but not for the general public (police, security). Work with the committee on mental health services to provide more counseling, and a fair way to keep those with serious problems from gun purchases.

Janet Marchand, 87 Birch Lane, Greenwich, CT