

I think as a state we need to have stronger and more practical gun laws. Such as background checks on all gun purchases and limits on high capacity ammunition. As a parent of two young children I think this issue must be addressed and common sense should prevail for future generations.

Jeff Martin
Fairfield, CT