

There is a limit to the Second Amendment. There is no right to bombs, tanks, etc. At issue, again, is what kind of arms – not all arms.

There is no right answer.

There is the “will of the people”.

This voter would prefer strict restrictions on the kinds of arms. Seems to me that small arms satisfy the intent of the Second Amendment. Bombs, tanks & assault rifles are not necessary to satisfy the Amendment’s intention.

This message can be public testimony.

Jim Squyres
One Mansfield Place
Darien