

Dear SIR;

In my opinion NRA has succeeded in limiting any forming of gun safety and control measures to protect the people of this country. Why don't we have an automated data base and this manual method of microfilm for archiving gun registry information -including from the medical profession who should not be allow to carry a gun. Many NRA members are cultivated to be either selfish or paranoid, and this has been cultivated by the NRA.

Joe