

I will be as single minded in voting for legislatures as they were for turning down the latest Bill for securing back ground checks for all gun purchases,including gun shows and internet. I will not vote for any opponent of gun control. They have only polarized the country even more.