

Thank you for your time . As we know this is a delicate topic. I would like to see any legislation that results from recommendations from each task force working group be open to full public hearings . I would like also that these recommendations be made with facts not emotions . Thank you John Sent from my iPhone