

This will start a war with your own neighbors and families, you will see more blood shed than ever, people are not just going to hand them over, I'm not even a gun owner and i know this, the best thing you should do is stand up for the peoples rights, don't let down, i really fear this happening, remember the constitutions are null and void. Well good luck and i hope you know what side you are on. God bless America.