

To your Working Group,

We must do something to change gun laws and the culture of violence that prevails in many places in this country. I live in Old Saybrook, CT and support thorough background checks for anyone buying or trading guns. I am also against assault weapons and magazines over 10. I support social services for mental health so more help can reach the individuals who may find guns as the only answer to their problems.

Sincerely,

Judith Gardiner