

I am writing in support of gun control legislation. We do not need assault-type weapons in our society - what purpose do they serve except to murder multiple innocent people. I also support limiting the number of rounds of ammunition sold in CT.