

I know it would be difficult, and there will always be people who break the law, but I would like to see a ban on assault weapons in Ct. It could save lives by reducing the power available to those with evil intent.

Kathleen Northover
Bristol, Ct.