

As a law abiding, tax paying citizen of Connecticut, I feel that doubling the tax on ammunition, asking us to pay for special liability insurance, banning certain sized magazines, is an insult to those who lawfully own firearms...whether it be for sport or protection.

Do you really think that these proposals are going to stop criminals and the mentally ill? Focus on tougher laws for crime, focus on helping the mentally ill, not punishing the law abiding tax paying citizens.

Kimberli Carpenter
Shelton, CT