

I am a faculty member at Trinity College and the mother of three young children. The massacre at Sandy Hook would not have happened without semiautomatic assault weapons and high-capacity magazines, and I fully support the proposed legislation banning these weapons.

Thank you,

Kristin Triff
Associate Professor of Fine Arts