

As a Sandy Hook resident and also a licensed psychotherapist, I'm requesting the committee follow New York's lead on this issue. No hunter or target shooter requires guns which are capable of firing rapid rounds. Are you aware one little first grade boy was shot 11 times? It's disgraceful that a "first world country" should have the mortality rate through gun use as does the USA.

Yours respectfully,

Laura Duffy
Licensed Professional Counselor #000324
Licensed Alcohol and Drug Counselor # 000054