

We control everything in our society that pertains to public safety - drivers licenses, rules of the road, building safety, medical safety, airline safety and much more. We must have gun safety. We will be the Wild West if we do not take care of this. I realize it would be impossible to protect from every scenario, but we must do what we can to limit misuse of guns.

Maris Cuneo
Redding, Connecticut

Sent from my iPad