

I'm an independent voter in Connecticut and a legal gun owner. I will not tolerate any "assault" on my second amendment right. The laws recently passed in New York and being consider the the Obama administration will do nothing to curb gun violence and only limit my constitutional rights. Any attempt to pass laws similar to this will lead to my votes and dollars going to the political party that best represents my views on this matter.

Sincerely,

Merle Mckenzie
Trainermerle@att.net