

There is every reason to pass legislation to strengthen laws for gun violence prevention, yet maintaining 2nd amendment rights so important to many citizens. We control driving, alcohol, drugs and tobacco; we can do better with unnecessarily powerful guns. Do not be distracted by the red herring of mental health; that should be on the agenda but not everyone who shoots a gun is mentally challenged, as defined by law.

Thank you,

Nan L. Glass

31 Woodland St., Unit 10L

Hartford, CT 06105

nlq06105@comcast.net