

Please be sensible and represent the all too silent majority - please advocate for stronger gun control.

I live in Greenwich and I have three children.

I am disgusted by the gun culture in this country - all in the name of constitutional rights. The NRA's successful bullying of politicians in no way represents the democracy that defines this country. We are no longer a country of freedom - we have become country of senseless bloodshed.

Please, please, please do something.

Patricia Brett
16 Birch Lane
Greenwich, CT 06830