

I am opposed to releasing the names of valid permit holders. Doing so will provide criminals a list of individuals to target for burglary of firearms.

I am a proponent of increased mental health checks for permits. The mental illness is the real source of the risk, not adding additional restrictions to the mass law abiding citizens.

I am a proponent of strict penalties for violent crimes with firearms and actually enforcing them.

Please take my input into consideration.

Sincerely,

R. Domonkos