

There is no good reason private citizens should have assault weapons or high capacity magazines. They should only be in the hands of the military or law enforcement. It is our opinion this does not interfere with the Second Amendment.

Regina and Dominic Ippolito
Bethel