

Let's have everyone turn in all their guns including the state and local police. That way no one will have guns and all of us will be safe.