

As a strong supporter of individual rights as enumerated in the Bill of Rights I strongly voice my opposition to potential "knee jerk" and unnecessary restrictions on the ownership and use of firearms and ammunition in the State of Connecticut. Fully aware of the emotion surrounding recent events I encourage the committee to approach the subject with abject honesty rather than emotional outcry.

Respectfully submitted

Robert Schumacher

Stamford, CT