

As a collector of historical artifacts I am opposed to complete gun control legislation. While some type of restriction on high capacity automatic guns and clips may be prudent, banning guns and clips of 10 rounds and under would be overly restrictive on responsible citizens.

Thank you, Robert Walker