

Hearing Members:

Further tragedies in schools and public places would be lessened with a ban on automatic rifles (save for hunters), stricter background checks, earlier treatment of the mentally ill, while still protecting the right to bear arms. Public safety demands the ban and professional treatment of mentally ill persons.

Ruth Woodcock, MALS