

Hello,

I am writing to urge the committee members on mental health to move forward with this bill. I was happy to see that 5500 people turned out for the rejection of high ammunition guns up in Hartford last Thursday. As I was there, I met a woman who's son is schizophrenic and urged me to write to you. There have been no rallies for dealing with the Mental Health issue in this State and this country. These people need help. This is the other half of the picture.

Thank you for your support,

Laura
