The Connecticut State Capitol Police

In 1974 the State Legislature created the Office of the State Capitol Police. The office grew from its original complement of seven officers to a staffing level that includes twenty-five Officers, four Sergeants, a Lieutenant, and the Chief of Police.

State Capitol Police Officers are responsible for meeting the law enforcement and public safety needs of the General Assembly. Officers patrol a seventeen acre complex that includes the State Capitol building, the Legislative Office Building, and the Legislative parking garage. Over 100,000 people visit the complex every year. Since this is the focal point of state government, officers work in an exciting environment that respects the divergent views and opinions of legislators, staff, and visitors.

Officers are required to meet and maintain police officer certification standards, as mandated by state law and regulated by the Police Officer Standards and Training Council. The department has been nationally accredited through the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies Inc. (CALEA) since 2003. The department also earned state accreditation in 2006. In addition to certification standards, officers must maintain emergency medical response certification at an EMR level.

More information about the department can be found on our website at:
