I purchased a dog at a pet store for my children at Xmas and they told me that the dog was nearly 6 months old and after they passed that age they were "disposed" of. As much as we learned to love this puppy it eventually cost me over $15000.00 in vet bills (can be verified) before he passed away.

I do not recommend anyone buying any live animal from a pet store. A.Voloshin [REDACTED]
