

I don't know what to say or do anymore. I have lost faith in my elected officials, and lawmakers to make sane decisions regarding CT's future. As I see people leaving CT. in Doves, both young and old, I am strongly considering joining them, and voting with my feet as well. I have closed one LLC, and am in the process of dissolving my second and final one.

Best regards,

Jerry Borrelli