

Hello people of the board,

My suggestion first is that we rid vehicle tax. As a vehicle only depreciates in value. Secondly there should be a safety test that vehicles have to pass as well as emissions. Seeing how many accidents in this state occur do to unsafe vehicles being on the road. This would insure safety of everyone. It would create more work because of repairs therefore more revenue for companies. For the state more taxes paid on that revenue.

Jean Eklund