

Commission on Economic Competitiveness and the Commerce Committee

Legislative Office Building (LOB)

300 Capitol Avenue, Hartford, CT 06106

Parking available in public garage

Friday, February 3rd in Room 2E, 11am-12:30pm

Status Report of the Connecticut Health Data Collaborative (CHDC)

“Building the Precision Medicine and Personalized Health Cluster in Connecticut”

The economic promise of precision medicine and personalized health

Gathering at 11am – Joe McGee and Rep. William Tong, Co-Chairs

1) Opening remarks

Senator Joan Hartley, Co-Chair, CHDC, and Co-Chair, Commerce Committee

2) Introduction to Precision Medicine and Personalized Health

Dr. Robert Alpern - Dean, Yale School of Medicine

and

Dr. Bruce Liang - Dean, UConn School of Medicine

3) Research and Development in Connecticut: Building Strong Cohorts

- Dr. Murat Gunel, Executive Director, Yale Center for Genomic Analysis
- Dr. Edison Liu, CEO, The Jackson Laboratory
- Brent Graveley, PhD, UConn Health Center and NIH National Advisory Council for Human Genome Research

4) Opportunities from the Insurance Perspective

- Wendy Sherry, COO Cigna Northeast
- Dr. Peter Bowers, Chief Medical Officer, Anthem Blue Cross Blue Shield

5) Building the Workforce Pipeline

- Dr. Tom Agresta, UConn Health Center for Quantitative Medicine
- Todd Arnold, PhD, Managing Director, The Mount Sinai Genetics Testing Laboratory

6) Reaching Diverse Populations with Personalized Medicine

- Mark Masselli, PhD, President of the Community Health Center
- Dr. Amy Justice, Prof. of Medicine and Public Health, Yale School of Medicine

Closing remarks – Senator Hartley