Policies Regarding Sexual Assault, Stalking, and Intimate Partner Violence

In accordance with state and federal regulations, Trinity College has a comprehensive Policy on Sexual Harassment that governs all students, faculty, and staff. The College’s first policy became effective on August 28, 2015 and was revised in 2018, 2020, and 2021. The 2018 and 2020 policies are attached as Exhibit I and II. The current policy, effective September 2021, is attached as Exhibit III.

Prevention, Awareness, Training, and Risk Reduction Programs
Due to the pandemic and suspension of in person learning, many of the programs were held virtually.

- Mandated education and prevention workshops:
  - Not Anymore: Required video for incoming First Years before campus arrival
  - First Year Orientation: Interactive theater production on consent, bystander intervention (Green Dot), overview of sexual misconduct and harassment
  - Required Sophomore Training: Prevention via bystander intervention (Green Dot) with an overview on sexual misconduct and harassment.
  - Required Junior and Senior Training: Prevention via bystander intervention (Green Dot) with an overview on sexual misconduct and harassment.

  - Green Dot Program: The Green Dot violence prevention strategy is designed to engage the entire campus in proactive and reactive bystander intervention to prevent and eliminate power based gender violence on campus, and to change the culture that enables it. It includes training students regarded as socially influential campus members who then role model the values of Green Dot to their peer groups. All student leaders receive Green Dot information as part of their required training in sexual misconduct education and prevention.

  - Required Employee Training: Sexual harassment prevention and response workshops for faculty and staff.
Prevention and Awareness Programming and Campaigns
Due to the pandemic and suspension of in person learning, many of the programs were held virtually.

- The Red Flag Campaign: This is an annual campaign to educate campus members about the warning signs of abusive, unhealthy relationships and talking and to provide active bystander tips.

- Voices Raised in Power: Annually student sponsored event that celebrates surviving and thriving after incident(s) of sexual violence, featuring student performances.

- The Vagina Monologues: A student directed and performed production written by Eve Ensler and produced by VDay.org, an international movement to end violence against women. The play includes stories that involve incest and sexual violence.

- Take Back the Night: Annual student-led campus-wide event designed to educate the campus community on sexual misconduct, sexual harassment, and bystander intervention, and supporting survivors.

- “Sexual Citizens: Sex, Power, and Assault on Campus”: Students held a virtual conversation with authors Jennifer S. Hirsch and Shamus Khan on their groundbreaking research of the root causes of sexual violence & harassment on campus and innovative prevention steps and distributed approximately 100 books on campus.

- Differently Abled and Consent: Program that discussed consent that was sponsored by Students Encouraging Consensual Sex.

- Social Media and Flyer Campaigns: Title IX rights, reporting options, staff confidentiality levels, definitions of consent and types of sexual harassment/misconduct
