Recommendations	Subcommittee	Vote Count
Diversification in Law Enforcement: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Diversify the types of outreach activities conducted related to recruiting. Expand beyond job fair, military, cultural events, and university recruiting. 2. Openly address concerns about sexism in law enforcement when recruiting women. 3. Openly address concerns about sexism in law enforcement when recruiting college-age women. 4. Emphasize the challenge aspects of law enforcement careers to attract more female and racial/ethnic minority candidates. 5. Emphasize job security in law enforcement careers to attract more female and racial/ethnic minority candidates. 6. Reduce processing times for applicants to limit loss through attrition. 7. Simplify hiring process instructions/processes to limit confusion among applications. 8. Incorporate supportive messaging. 9. Analyze qualification criteria to determine which aspects disproportionately impact female and racial/ethnic minority candidates. 10. Set standards for evaluating disproportionate impact at equal passing rates rather than at the 80% EEOC compliance thresholds. 11. Adopt or expand adult or active learning principles in academy training. 12. Reduce emphasis on paramilitary approaches to training. 13. Increase support networks for cadets through mentoring programs. 	Public Awareness	Passed unanimously

14. Monitor developments in training academies in other jurisdictions that are advancing these issues through novel training protocols. 15. Compare implementation of similar curriculum across other jurisdictions to determine best approach to content delivery and format. 16. Engage in data collection and self-study to isolate areas of impact that increase early-career attrition among female and racial/ethnic minority officers. 17. Establish diversification as an institutional priority.
Police Interactions with Disability Community: 1. Expand and more fully publicize Unity Way 2-1-1 phone line/affiliate 2-1-1 website public awareness campaign across the state. User-friendly public awareness messaging across a variety of communicative methods (e.g., billboards, phone apps, radio, social media, TV). Communities encouraged to develop messaging in partnership with community stakeholders (e.g., United Way, disability community representatives, school youth population). 2. Standardized implementation of United Way 2-1-1 phone line/affiliate 2-1-1 website education program. Fully voluntary, opt-in resource available for use by all public, private, charter schools, home educator networks, and co-op systems in the state. 3. Clarification and expansion of training on intersection between 2-1-1 and 9-1-1 phone line dispatching processes. Training may include enhanced dispatcher training content and course availability, enhanced availability of licensing opportunities for community stakeholders, concise yet specific, publicly available, step-by-step process document that outlines scenarios in which a United Way 2-1-1 dispatcher would transfer crisis calls placed by persons with disabilities to 9-1-1. 4. Clarification and expansion of public messaging about the intersection between 2-1-1 and 9-1-1 phone line dispatching process.	Improving Police Interactions with Disability Community	Pending vote

5. Localities constitute and implement a mobile Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) in accordance with specific community needs based on three central considerations: (1) crisis call volume/caseload, (2) safety considerations, and (3) budgetary factors. Localities may join a regional CIT structure or implement their own. 6. Localities hire social workers (SWs) in addition to or in place of CITs contingent on the three central considerations listed above. 7. Localities hire SWs as licensed clinical social workers (LCSWs) or master of social work (MSWs) in accordance with specific community conditions, needs and resources. 8. Localities create an opt-in full voluntary registry system (VRS) for improving information sharing between individuals with disabilities and their local police departments. 9. If localities create and implement VRS, they elect storage of information via a secure database. 10. Decision on whether and how to constitute VRS be left to localities with input from community stakeholders, disability community, police department and privacy advocates. 11. In the event localities choose to create and implement a VRS, they ensure opt-in choices for individuals with disabilities from the non-police community and police community alike. 12. Expand and more fully publicize NextGen 9-1-1 system, voIP text to 9-1-1 program public awareness campaign across the state. 13. Expand police officer curriculum and in-service training pertinent to addressing the unique needs of the disability community. POSTC could expand disability-training course offerings, in-service opportunities, clarify the number of course hours and in-service trainings required annually, set required annual minimum number of hours for course and in-service training tracks.
Civilian Interview Panels: 1. Establish a Civilian Interview Panel (CIP) as part of the police officer hiring process to increase communication, cooperation and trust between the police and community. CIP will allow	Logistics CBA Policing Task Force	Pending vote

community to provide input on hiring of police and allow diverse groups to have a common goal and opportunity to discuss how policing affects the communities within a municipality. CIP process will teach policy applicants about various points of view, interests, and concerns expressed by each group and how policing activities affect groups differently. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 2. CIP will meet with and interview police applicant finalists before hiring. CIP can take the form of a meet and greet or questions and answer session at the discretion of the municipality. Afterward the CIP will meet with the police chief, police commissioners and/or hiring committee to discuss impression of the applicants. CIP will be advisory and will not have veto power of an applicant but their input and advice will be a requirement in the hiring process. 3. Police departments may determine when in the hiring process to use CIP. 4. Where allowable under existing contracts and where feasible, it is recommended CIP be used to evaluate officers up for command staff level promotions. 5. CIP consist of diverse cross-section of interested and invested groups in the municipality. CIP members selected by elected municipal officials.

clear persons reporting may do so anonymously and the form should ask for demographic information on the officer in question. The form should not require notarization and be available in both online and hard copy formats, multiple language options, and the collaboration of the POST Council and CHRO about the forms process. 2. The data from the complaints must be promptly submitted by each police department to a database maintained by the Office of Policy and Management. The data will not include names or other identifying information and will be tracked through a numbered system so that it is possible to determine whether the same officer or complainant are being reported against or reporting. POSTC will determine which categories of complaints must be submitted by all departments (including racial profiling, discourteous behavior, and excessive use of force), but should not permit police departments to wait and submit only those complaints that are investigated or determined to be substantiated. POSTC must also develop an auditing policy to ensure that each department is making the complaint form widely available and regularly and correctly submitted data. 3. OPM will maintain the database, which could be outsourced to a university, and submit a publically available bi-annual report of complaints received.
Civilian Review Board Recommendations: 1. Outlined different guidelines for municipalities to consider when instating a Civilian Review Board. 2.
