

STATE ADOLESCENT HEALTH CARE: PROGRAMS FOR REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH OF YOUTH AGES 10-19:

PRI Staff Working Draft (Rev. 6-20-11)

PROGRAM	SERVICE AREA/ DELIVERY SYSTEM	MAIN PURPOSE/BRIEF DESCRIPTION	NO. CLIENTS SERVED/ CAPACITY (ANNUAL)	ANNUAL FUNDING/ EXPENDITURES
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH*
Family Planning (Federal Maternal and Child Health Block Grant --- MCHBG)	Statewide services under contract with Planned Parenthood of So. New England at 12 Family Planning Clinics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Provide preventive and primary reproductive health care through health services, information, and education (e.g. regarding pregnancy, contraception, sexually transmitted diseases, child-bearing and fatherhood) to the uninsured or underserved individuals in the state</li> <li>• Includes case management, parenting, first-time motherhood, healthy choices for women/children services</li> <li>• Pregnant and parenting teens are linked with appropriate health, educational, employment, and social services; case management services also provided for pregnant teens, including secondary teen pregnancy prevention and parenting programs to promote positive birth outcomes.</li> </ul>	SFY 09 served 39,473 participants (all ages)	Funding: $1,052,419 state $ 21,140 federal
Pregnancy Risk Assessment Tracking System (PRATS)	Statewide	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Population-based survey of postpartum women of all ages (including adolescents) used to monitor perinatal risk factors and health indicators</li> </ul>	All postpartum women in Connecticut	$100,000 federal
Sexually Transmitted Diseases (STDs) Control Program	Statewide/9 local clinics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Various activities designed to reduce the occurrence of STDS (e.g., gonorrhea, Chlamydia, syphilis) through disease surveillance, case and outbreak investigation, screening, preventive therapy, outreach, diagnosis, case management, and education</li> <li>• Includes programs for comprehensive STD prevention, infertility prevention, syphilis elimination, HIV partner counseling/risk education, partner notification services</li> <li>• Provide financial and technical support to local STD clinics</li> <li>• STD cases reported in Connecticut in 2009: Gonorrhea - Total: 2,554 (662 ages 10-19) Chlamydia - Total: 12,136 (4,035 ages 10-19) Syphilis - Total: 65 (5 ages 15-19)</li> </ul>	All persons affected with STDS with focus on 15 - 24 year olds (highest STD burden) 9 clinics statewide serve 6,000 patients (all ages) annually	Clinic Funding: $200,000 state (help support) $740,000 federal (for staffing)
Sexual Violence Intervention and Prevention	Statewide	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Provide access to free and confidential crisis intervention, advocacy and support services by certified counselors to victims of sexual violence and their families; prevent sexual violence by promoting positive relationships, community, societal attitudes and behaviors</li> </ul>	During 2010-11: Crisis intervention: 3,845 male and female victims (all ages) Primary prevention education: 28,496 students (elem. – college) Training: 1,638 professionals	$591,684 federal $398,396 state

* Reproductive health care for adolescents also is provided through Community Health Centers and some School Based Health Centers funded by DPH. The department also funds HIV prevention activities focused on prevention, surveillance, and management of risk factors related to HIV/AIDS, including programs for prevention education, prenatal and other counseling and testing, case management, critical health care and supports, syringe exchange, and mental health services for HIV affected children.

PROGRAM	SERVICE AREA/ DELIVERY SYSTEM	MAIN PURPOSE/BRIEF DESCRIPTION	NO. CLIENTS SERVED/ CAPACITY (ANNUAL)	ANNUAL FUNDING/ EXPENDITURES
DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SERVICES
Family Planning (Federal Social Services Block Grant – SSBG)	Statewide services under contract with Planned Parenthood of So. New England	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Provide comprehensive reproductive health care services to low-income residents</li> </ul>	Serves 15,802 (all ages) as of 4/2011	$915,059 (Federal SSBG funds) FFY11
Teen Pregnancy Prevention Initiative (TPPI)	Statewide/ 9 contractors (community-based nonprofit agencies) with 12 sites	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Teen pregnancy prevention programming for at-risk youth</li> <li>Services provided through two evidence-based models (“Teen Outreach” and “Carrera”)</li> </ul>	SFY11: 50-60 per site; 640 total capacity	$1,721,600 state
DEPARTMENT OF CHILDREN AND FAMILIES
Reproductive Health Services for Girls in Juv. Justice Res. Treatment	Statewide/5 contractors (private nonprofit agencies)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Pregnancy and STD prevention programming and education for residents</li> <li>Upon request of resident, some provide contraception/some only referral for contraception</li> </ul>
Pregnant &amp; Parenting Girls Programs	Statewide/5 contractors (private nonprofit agencies)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Residential care and supportive services for adolescent mothers and their infants</li> <li>Can include prenatal/postpartum care, pregnancy and STD education and prevention, counseling, parenting education</li> </ul>
STATE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
Young Parents Program	Local and regional school districts and community providers statewide	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Grants provided to assist local and regional school districts in designing, developing and implementing an educational program for students who are parents</li> <li>Must offer high school education for young parents, child care services for their children, parenting education and information about child development, and linkage to other community resources</li> <li>Offers teen parents access to education programs</li> </ul>	Over 160 pregnant and parenting teens and their children, SFY10	$229,330 SFY10
Support for Pregnant and Parenting Teens Project (SPPT)	Five Connecticut school districts with high teen birth and school dropout rates (Hartford, New Haven, Bridgeport, New Britain, & Waterbury)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>School-based grant project that targets pregnant and parenting Hispanic and African American youth in grades 9 through 12 with goal of improving health, education, and social outcomes through coordination among SDE, DPH, and DSS</li> <li>Social marketing campaign to disseminate information about existing resources for pregnant and parenting teens and their children</li> </ul>		$1,999,991 (FFY11)